ANDREW KRIEGER, FCAS, MAAA

Consulting Actuary | Rockville, Maryland

Andrew has experience in loss reserve analyses, group captives, rate filing reviews, personal and commercial lines ratemaking, and audit support.

He has worked with pricing and loss reserve analyses for captive insurance companies, self-insureds and traditional insurance companies writing workers' compensation, general liability, professional liability, auto liability and auto physical damage.

He serves as project manager for a number of loss reserve analyses and funding studies, performing both interim and year-end analyses.

Andrew also assists with the preparation of Statements of Actuarial Opinion (SAOs), Actuarial Opinion Summaries and actuarial reports.

Andrew also brings extensive experience with personal and commercial auto pricing. In a previous role at a large insurance company, Andrew led a team of actuaries in setting and maintaining rates for commercial auto and boat insurance. With the development of a new proprietary commercial auto product, Andrew determined rate levels by state and coverage as well as state-specific adjustments to comply with regulatory requirements.

★ Qualified to sign statements of actuarial opinion per the American Academy of Actuaries (AAA)
